

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Institute of Germanic-Romance Languages and Cultures
at Tallinn University

announces

An International Conference Multicultural Perspectives on the English Language, Literature, and Culture

to be held on 28–29 May 2009
at Tallinn University, Estonia

The aim of the conference is to bring together researchers of different philological disciplines (linguistics, literatures in English, cultural studies and teaching English as a foreign language (EFL)). The conference will take the form of plenaries and workshops. Plenary sessions will be conducted by distinguished scholars and practitioners. Workshop presentations which adopt an interdisciplinary perspective are particularly welcome.

The official working language of the conference is English. The length of plenary speeches is 40 minutes plus 10 minutes for discussion. Workshop presentation time is limited to 20 minutes plus 10 minutes for discussion. The deadline for registration and abstracts for presentations is 24 February 2009. Abstracts, summarising the presentations, should not exceed 250 words. Selected papers will be published in the Conference Proceedings.

The conference fee is EUR 32 or EEK 500, payable upon arrival. Registration forms and abstracts should be submitted to Johanna Marley via e-mail: yanza@tlu.ee

Participants are expected to arrange their own accommodation. To assist you, information in English is accessible on the Internet. The organisers recommend the following sites:

www.ehrl.ee,

www.revalhotels.com,
